

Federal Excess Property Program

Purpose

The purpose of the Federal Excess program is to loan used Federal Wildland engines to eligible Washington Fire Protection Districts, and to monitor use of existing equipment acquired under the program until no longer needed or replaced.

Eligibility

Federal Excess program is open to all fire districts with a wildland responsibility, and an agreement with DNR in good standing.

Equipment availability

Due to changes in the Federal property distribution process, only limited equipment can be acquired.

Terms and conditions \(pdf\)